

Your Own Experience

Are you tempted to believe what others say about someone? If so, don't. It may be false information. Or rumors. Or someone trying to sway your opinion. Go based on your own experience of that someone, not what you hear about them. It's only fair. (Yes, I realize that I sound like a 5-year-old when I say it's only fair. Those kindergarten rules are great rules to live by, though. No matter what age we are.)
