Everything has a Spot

One of my favorite organization tips of all time: find a "home" or spot for your stuff. A logical, convenient spot. Then when you use something, it will be so easy to clean up. Just put things back in their spot.